LOCAL RESTAURANTS SUPPORT UNITED WAY

CAMBRIDGE, ONTARIO, 26 May 2011– United Way’s Great Restaurant Challenge is on! From June 1 to 30, Cambridge restaurants and their patrons can take advantage of the summer heat and give back to their community. Various restaurants will be participating to make their contribution to our community by raising money for the programs and services offered by our partner agencies.

The Great Restaurant Challenge helps United Way of Cambridge and North Dumfries build awareness while offering opportunities for our local restaurants to support their community.

Since 2008, more than 20 area eateries have participated in The Great Restaurant Challenge raising over $13,000 for United Way. “June is the perfect month to enjoy dining on patios, treating Dad for Father’s Day, celebrating graduation or just relaxing with friends – all while supporting United Way!” said Roxana Stancui, Director of Development for United Way of Cambridge and North Dumfries.

“We care about our community and the people in it.” Kelly - manager of M&M Bar and Grill - last year’s winner, had to say, “This challenge is easy, fun - a great way to get involved and set an example.”

M&M will be kicking off this year’s challenge with an opening event on Monday, May 30th at 7 p.m. Join United Way Campaign Cabinet, volunteers and participating restaurants as we launch The Great Restaurant Challenge.
